
HERO ACTIVISTS

PROFILE

Carmen is the feisty heroine and Braga is her accomplice. They have infiltrated Planet Parliament to expose the corruption inside to the rest of the world. Carmen films goings on to provoke the Speaker and both she and Braga agitate to create chaos and mobilise action from the General Public.

[Carmen and Braga are both main characters in the novel 'Jabujicaba' and sequel novela "Caretta Caretta' both by Rosa da Silva.]

VALUES

Carmen and Braga are anti-capitalists. They believe money has corrupted humans and defined their relationship with Nature. They are action-orientated. They believe all the solutions we need are already in our power because together people can stop climate change. Scientists need to get off the fence. Politicians need to care. People need to act together and stop consuming. Braga does not pull back from physical intervention. He sabotages electronics and he fights with both Trani and the Speaker to apprehend them.

SPEECHES

Carmen and Braga's parts are both fully scripted. Defining lines:

Carmen: You, me, us - we all need to save the Amazon!

Braga: Come on everybody! Solidarity!

RESEARCH

Relevant blogs and science briefs (under Resources) on www.planetparliamentnow.org